Mary DeMuth Biography

Mary DeMuth helps people to turn their trials into triumphs. An expert in Pioneer Parenting, Mary enables parents to navigate our changing culture when their families left no good faith examples to follow. Her parenting books include Authentic Parenting in a Postmodern Culture, Building the Christian Family You Never Had, and Ordinary Mom, Extraordinary God. Mary also inspires people to face their trials through her real-to-life novels, including Watching the Tree Limbs (Christy finalist) and Wishing on Dandelions. Mary has spoken around the US and Western Europe. She and her husband, Patrick, live in Texas with their three children. They recently returned from breaking new spiritual ground in Southern France, where they planted a church.

If you are planning to fly to Oxford, the closest airport is Raleigh-Durham International Airport. Transportation can be provided from the airport to the hotel and from the hotel to Sedgefield Plantation.
